Gents - please see below. Need your input before we proceed.

This will be an important process to go through, as it will likely inform how we do this, on an increasing basis, in the future.

(b)(3): 10 USC 424;(b)(6)

can you please schedule a tberg with me, OGC, and to discuss the specifics of this case. Mid week would be best.

Thanks.

My office has been retained to represent the above former DIA employee with respect to his recent submission of a resume to your office for classification review.

Although there is actually very little in dispute, my client does regard the redactions as substantively significant and believes the information has been officially released previously. As I am currently not privy to the specific language at issue, at this time I simply want to facilitate an opportunity for [REDACTED] to meet with your staff in person at a convenient date and discuss the matter. As I'm sure you know, I have handled similar disputes many times with DIA and DoD officials. Certainly my preference, and I hope that of your office, is to amicably resolve the dispute at the lowest level without need for escalation.

(b)(3): 10 USC 424; (b)(6)

Please let me know if your office is amenable to such a meeting and if so we can discuss coordination. I can best be reached via email or my cell at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Thank you for your consideration, and I look forward to hearing from your office.

Mark
